

Unit 4 – Focus on
2. Teens at the Apollo Theater

p. 48 – CD 2 piste 4 –  n°17

This summer, grab your friends and take over Harlem's Apollo Theater, one of the most famous music-halls in the world! Follow in the footsteps of world-famous artists who performed in this mythical music-hall, like Michael Jackson or Stevie Wonder.

Aspiring singers, dancers, musicians, comedians, try your best to please the audiences that can make you an Apollo legend.

“Apollo Teen Takeover” is a celebration of the arts created by New York City's most talented young artists. It is the best opportunity for teenagers who share a passion for the arts to show their talent.

In this programme, teenagers are surrounded by professional artists and they can express their creativity and their talents in a friendly environment. It's a unique chance for them to collaborate with other young New York artists.

Whatever the participants may choose (music, dance, theatre, the media, or visual arts), “Apollo Teen Takeover” is the coolest place to be this summer for New York's young, promising artists who intend to make art their goal in life.

Become the legendary artist of tomorrow. Join the “Apollo Teen Takeover” programme now!
